WEDNESDAY, AUG. 20, 1919.

APPOINTMENT AND RECEPTION TIME
RECEIVED BY THE VIRGINIAN, WASHINGTON, D. C.
(Established March 1, 1909)

Published weekly at Appomattox, Va., except on legal holidays.
A. H. CLARK, Editor.

PRICE OF SUGAR REGULATED

Eleven cents a pound for granulated sugar has been declared by the U. S. Dept. of Justice as the price retail dealers can charge. Dealers charging more than eleven cents will be investigated, said U. S. Assistant Dist. Attorney C. B. Ames. Consumers who are charged more than the price fixed by the government are requested to write Mr. Ames at the Department of Justice, Washington, or to the nearest United States District Attorney.

Veru

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Davidson were the Sunday guests of Mrs. Isabelle Turner, at Holly wood. Mrs. Lily Gilliam, of Hixburg, has as her guest Mrs. Sue Harvey, of Graham. Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Rhodes were in Lynchburg last week. Miss May Harvey, of Madison Heights, and Miss Jane Davis of Richmond, visited relatives in the neighborhood last week. Miss Harney is now the guest of Miss Davis in Richmond. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lewis spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. C. A. Anderson. Mr. A. B. Abbit and family, of Newport News, were the guests of Mr. George Abbit here.

Miss Quida Bernard, of Newport News, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. W. J. Covington.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Chornault spent Sunday at the home of W. A. Forbes.

Mrs. Bettie McGinnison, of Lynchburg, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Cornelia Anderson.

Hurtsville
Among those going to and from were Mrs. S. N. Hurt and Miss Ellen Hurt, who left for Beech Creek, W. Va.

Mrs. R. K. Armour and children, Frances and Iris, have returned to Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Pugh, of Richmond, are visiting in the neighborhood.

The young people had a social gathering at the home of Mr. W. J. Kidd.

Mr. Ernest T. Jennings is back from France, where he served his country.

The corn crop hereabouts is about half a crop, and tobacco, the main money crop, is very short. Some are quite puzzled as to what to do, although I thought one man spoke wisely when he said he was going to wind his crop up as quick as he could and go at something else.

Pamplin
Rev. Hobbs is at home from helping in services at Hixburg. As says it was a glorious meeting and large attendance.

Two young girls from Hixburg were in town having dental work done. I heard many remarks about the good looking girls, which I will not attempt to write; it would take too much space. I heard one remark that he would love to have the eyes of the older girl, that she sure did have a beautiful nose. Now, to be fair to the girls, I better mention what they were—Miss Harker. You have heard the old saying, that "the pretty flower will soon be plucked." And it is true.

Hixburg
Your correspondent joins in with the citizens here in offering a suitable reward to anyone that can arouse "Tip Van Winkle"—that would be—from what looks to be a twenty year nap, being very careful to only estimate the plans and date of the promised Hixburg school, as we do not want to disappoint him while enjoying this short season of sweet repose.

Mr. Holcomb McOne and Mr. Hugh B. Swan, of Bluefield, spent last week with relatives here.

The young man, Mr. Harry Howard, who lives with Mr. J. H. McCue, was severely hurt by being kicked by a horse, but at this writing he seems to be doing very well.

The protracted meeting at Baptist church closed Friday night and more than 30 people accepted Christ and 25 or more were baptized in the river at Mr. W. L. Ford's Sunday afternoon, the occasion being witnessed by quite a crowd.

Mrs. John Webb, of Knoxville, Tenn., is sick with fever at the home of her father, Mr.

Trustee's Sale

Services at Olive Branch every night and morning this week. The pastor, Rev. Messers, is preaching to large crowds. Now in conclusion, will say that everyone that thinks seriously of the National highway causing us to have two bridges across the Appomattox river, will please meet Mr. J. Tom Hix's store Saturday at 4 p. m. and stand on their head or contribute to the Hixburg bridge-building company the sum of $5 each. Wishing the project much success while applying for a bond and suretyship.

South Side

Mr. Mace Coleman and family have returned to the Hill City, after spending some time with his mother, Mrs. A. E. Coleman.

Mr. T. W. Odor has had a new coat of paint put on his house.

Mr. Clinton Cawthorn and family and sister, Miss Lilly, visited Mr. S. P. Coleman Sunday.

Miss Rachel Hunter spent the week-end with Miss Alice Shields near Spout Spring.

Miss Bessie Coleman entertained a number of her friends Saturday night in honor of her friend, Miss Catherine Beasley, of Lynchburg.

Mr. Travis Marshall and family are spending their vacation with her father, J. C. Chatham, Miss Ida Coleman, of Lynchburg, has returned home from a visit to relatives in Greensboro, Norfolk and Newport News.

Mr. Charlie Caldwell's has completed his new dwelling and moved in.

Miss Katie Harvey is visiting her sister, Mrs. Carter Hall, in Richmond.

Mr. Royall Ferguson and sister, Anna, visited at the home of Mrs. A. E. Coleman, Sunday, and the letter will spend this week in Lynchburg visiting relatives.

Mike News
Rev. Kesler filled his regular appointment at Union Hill and preached a fine sermon to a large congregation last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Francis and daughter, Arline, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Moody Martin.

Miss Willie Canada, from Crystal Hill, and Miss Thelma Wooley, from Halifax, are spending some days with Mrs. Sallie B. Cawthorn.

Mr. and Mrs. Palm Booker and two sons, from near Naris, visited Mrs. Maggie Williamson, Sunday.

Misses Polly and Genet Martin, from Petersburg, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Moody Martin.

Those who attended the Odd Fellows Lodge in Brookland last Saturday night, were Messrs. T. B. Joy, Moody Martin, Willard Tibbs and Samuel Williamson.

Oakville
The revival at Red Oak was well attended, night and day; everybody enjoyed the good sermons preached by Rev. Putney, and wish him much success in the meeting he is holding this week at Liberty Chapel.

Miss Lena Thorpe and mother, of Richmond, are visiting Mr. R. G. Thorpe.

Miss Grace Blanks is home, after spending several weeks with relatives in Lynchburg.

Misses Aletha Doss and Estelle Thomas are visiting their cousin, Miss Elma Mareh, Messrs. Eugene and Willie Hamilton spent several days last week at their uncle's, Mr. W. H. Lucado.

Miss Willie Kyle has returned to Lynchburg, after spending a week with home people here.

Miss Lois Lucado is home again after staying several months with a brother in Philadelphia.

Privates Miller and Allen Lucado are home again. We are always glad to see our soldier boys return.

Rev. Benj. Abbit will preach on at Red Oak Sunday morning at 11:15. We are always glad to have Rev. Abbit with us and hope to see a large crowd out.

Mrs. Al Owen and son, Nick, are visiting friends and relatives here.

THE BANK OF APPOMATTOX

Appomattox, Va.

Capital $20,000

Surplus and Profits $30,000

Total Resources Over 300,000

For eighteen years this bank has occupied a leading position in the financial affairs of this section.

It derives its powers from the banking laws of the State of Virginia and is subject to the supervision of the State banking department, which makes frequent examinations and gives detailed reports of the bank's condition. Additional examinations are made quarterly by its directors.

The officers and directors are composed of Bankers, Farmers and Business Men of experience and ability, and under their supervision the business is conducted. The policy of the bank is marked by adherence to sound banking principles. This has won for it the confidence and patronage of the people, as shown by the steady growth of its business, and makes known as
